

Restructuring & Liquidation

Creating bespoke solutions for growth-orientated businesses

At Grant Thornton, our core purpose is to create or preserve value for shareholders. To achieve this, we supply a wide range of services to under-performing businesses and their stakeholders.

Operational and Financial Restructuring

Underperforming companies often require advice and support identifying appropriate solutions for financial/operational restructuring to create a stable platform for business turnaround.

We have significant experience in the evaluation of all sizes of businesses, ranging from SMEs through to complex multi-jurisdiction based businesses.

Our work focuses on:

- Understanding the position of a business
- Identifying the appropriate financing structure
- Ascertaining how a restructure could be delivered

Liquidation, Insolvency and Corporate Simplification

When looking to liquidate a company or simply obtain advice; you need it from a firm who can draw upon years of technical and professional experience. At Grant Thornton, we leverage our teams wide experience to assess your position before providing credible and practical solutions.

Often such advice will include:

- Formal liquidation process
- Undertaking liquidations
- Insolvency engagements

Crisis Stabilisation and Turnaround

Where underperformance leads to a breach of banking facilities or covenants; pressure from creditors or when facing threats of withdrawal of credit lines, a business and its stakeholders will need to appoint independent advisors with proven experience.

In the early stages of turnaround, the right support is necessary to create financial stability, assess cash flow and identify other means of improving short-term liquidity.

In such cases, we provide a full suite of services including:

- Management and implementation of full crisis stabilisation
- Turnaround programmes

Succession Planning

When deciding on a structure for succession planning, we are able to advise on the following:

- Control
- Ownership
- Taxation
- Asset and wealth protection
- Growth optimisation
- Exit options and succession strategies

Our clients get the very best that Grant Thornton has to offer

At Grant Thornton, we have the capability to undertake restructuring, liquidations and insolvency engagements for individual companies through to large, complex group structures with cross-border presence.

Our dedicated team of specialists offer a wide range of services, which will support your dynamic business meet their restructuring needs which may span across various aspects of the business life-cycle.
